

Bedtime Fun

*Have your child tell what they did that was new and exciting that day.

*Have your child tell what they are thankful for that day.

*Have your child start a story with them as the main character. Then you add to the story and they can help fill in the details.