

CHILD

"Little star, that shines so bright,

Come and peep at me to-night;

For I've often watched for you,

In the pretty sky, so blue.

Little star, Oh! tell me, pray,

Where you hide yourself all day

Have you got a home, like me,

And a father, kind to thee?"