

Discovering Categories

*One of the best places to start to play this game is at the grocery store because things are all ready in categories.

*You name a category such as fruits. Then your child finds all the things they can that are fruits.

*You move onto another category such as meats. Children then begin to name categories and things are then found in that category.

Ideas of Categories

fruits

sports

vegetables

birds

meats

flowers

poultry

zoo animals

dairy products

farm animals