

ID Flashlight

*Get two flashlights one for you and one for your child.

*Play the game of flashing on an object and the other person has to name that object.

*Another game is to flash on the object and the person has to tell what color the object is.

*Another game is to flash on the object and your child tells the name of the object and you and your child discover what letter the object start with and what sound the letter makes (Example: ball, b-b-b "B").

*It is fun also to snuggle up and read a book using only a flashlight.
