

Painting

*Take a piece of white construction paper, put globs of different colored paint onto the paper, and put a piece of cling wrap over the paper.

*Your child can move the paint around and paint away.

*You can make a few of these up at a time and your child will be delighted with their creations.