

The Life Cycle of a Plant

A plant starts with a seed.

The seed grows roots.

The stem and the leaves pop out of the ground.

A small plant starts to grow and grow.

The plant may then flower and then fruits, flowers, or vegetables will appear.