

The Caterpillar

Books to Illustrate

Illustrated by

A caterpillar crawled to the top of a tree, "I think I'll take a nap," said he.

So under a leaf, he began to creep to spin his chrysalis and he fell asleep.

For a long time he slept
in his chrysalis bed.

Till spring came along one day and said, "Wake up,
wake up little sleepy
head."

"Wake up; it's time to get out of bed!"

So, he opened his eyes
that sun shiny day.
WOW, he was a
butterfly and flew away!