How a Book Works

Run of the questions and put them into a box so your child can pull a question out and answer them.

Where is the front of the book?

Where is the back of the book?

What is an author? (The person who writes the book.)

Who is the author of this book?

What does an illustrator do for a book? (They draw the pictures.)

Who is the illustrator of this book?

Show me where I read on this page? (Player points to the words not the picture.)

Point to where I should start reading on this page. (Player points to the first word of the first sentence.)

Show me which way I go to read on this page. (Start at the beginning of the sentence and then point to the words left to right.)

When I get to the end of the line of words on this page where do I go to keep reading?

Point to each word as I read this page. (Player points to each word one by one.)

Where is the first part of the book? Where is the last part of the book?

Show me the bottom of this picture.

Can I read the page like this? (Alter the line order so you read the bottom line first; it should NOT make sense.)

Can I read this page (point to the page to the right) before I read this page (point to the page to the left)?

Is this what the page reads? (Change the word order; the sentence should NOT sound right.)

What does this mean (?)? (It is a question mark.)

What does this mean (.)? (It is a period and that means you stop at the end of a sentence.)

What does this mean (,)? (It is a comma and you pause when reading.)

Show me a capital M and a small m (Ask to find a capital letter on the page and a small letter, it does not have to be an “Mm”).

Find the word _____. (Ask to find a specific word on that page.)

With your fingers show me two letters.

With your fingers show me one word.

With your fingers show me the first letter of a word.

With your fingers show me the last letter of a word.

With your fingers show me a Capital letter.
