

Stages of Children's Writing

- SCRIBBLING: Children move from random scribbles to left-to-right scribbling.
- DRAWING: Children draw and read their drawings as a form of communication.
- RANDOM LETTERS: Children write letters in long, random strings.
- INVENTED SPELLING: Children represent words by the sounds they hear.
- COMMON SPELLING: Children begin to spell words correctly.