

The Caterpillar

A caterpillar crawled to the top of a tree,
"I think I'll take a nap", said he.

So under a leaf, he began to creep,
to spin his chrysalis and he fell asleep.

For a long time he slept in his chrysalis bed.
Till spring came along one day, and said,
"Wake up, wake up little sleepy head."
"Wake up, it's time to get out of bed!"

So, he opened his eyes that sun shiny day.
WOW, he was a butterfly and flew away!
